HOT NEW ORLEANS NIGHTS

Imagine being in the midst of steamy New Orleans in 1917, amidst all of the glamour, the glitz, the ladies, the fine gentelmen, and not to mention all of that legendary music.

All of that and more can now be found on stage at the Colorado Belle. On February 2, "Hot New Orleans Nights", a brilliantly produced and choreographed production, debuted in the Riverboat Lounge. Don't miss the excitement of this fabulous stage show, appearing three times nightly in the Riverboat Lounge, Tuesday through Sunday. Showtimes for this dynamic revue are posted throughout the casino.

"The show is much more theatrical, it really tells a story," Entertainment Manager Joe Mattes explains. "It comes complete with dancing, singing and dialogue, all set in New Orleans in 1917. Set around the time when the war is winding down, the main setting for the show is a night club known as 'Club Creole.' Featured performer and vocalist, Lucy Lucille takes on the role of 'Katie Townsend' the owner of the club."

Lucille will perform four solo numbers during the show including the original tune "Miss New Orleans In My Dreams," written by Lucille and Ken Gold. She will also sing "Your Husband is Cheatin' On Us," "Birth of the Blues" and "Ain't Nobody's Bizness."

"Hot New Orleans Nights" will feature 13 musical numbers, each using a variety of performers and elaborate costume changes. "There have been major costuming changes so that the show will have a lot more glitter," Mattes said. "The extensive design work will incorporate a lot of show girl-style costuming. The production will also be enhanced by a tremendous amount of special effects."

"Hot New Orleans Nights" will also feature a male vocalist. The character, "Sonny Boudreaux," will perform three numbers during the course of the show, including "That Gal of Mine" and "Sunnyside of the Street."

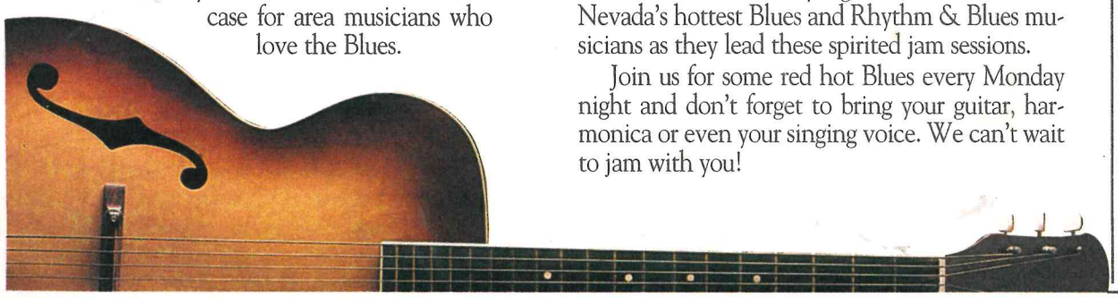
In every state and in every major city you'll find a club that is dedicated to the Blues, and in Laughlin, the Colorado Belle's Riverboat Lounge is that club. Nowhere else on the river will you discover the intense Blues/Rhythm & Blues sounds that are generated during the Monday Blues show.

For six explosive months in 1992 the Colorado Belle offered the hottest Blues and Rhythm and Blues show to ever see a stage in Laughlin. The Monday Blues show became a showcase for area musicians who love the Blues.



Now, Monday Blues has made its long-awaited return and things are heating up in the Riverboat Lounge as Blues musicians from miles around have an open invitation to come jam with us.

In 1992, the show's popularity attracted as many as 30 musicians a week to the stage for the open jam sessions. Musicians from as far as Phoenix, Las Vegas and Los Angeles traveled to the Colorado Belle just for the opportunity to step on stage and strut their stuff before a packed house while an explosive professional band backed them.

Things are bigger and better this year, and the show is sure to be a constant hit with musicians and fans alike. Each Monday night will feature some of Nevada's hottest Blues and Rhythm & Blues musicians as they lead these spirited jam sessions.

Join us for some red hot Blues every Monday night and don't forget to bring your guitar, harmonica or even your singing voice. We can't wait to jam with you!
